Inside on Pages 8 & 9

Can someone please explain how one actor can admit to sleeping with women while HIV positive and his shows are still on the air and another actor be "accused" of things that supposedly happened 20, 30 and 40 years ago and his career is ruined? Both appear to be admittedly guilty of some sex crimes but their careers and professional fates are as different as night and day.

Sexual assault allegations

Bill Cosby has been the subject of publicized sexual assault allegations since about 2000. As of October 23, 2015, Cosby has been accused by at least 57 women including a former Mrs. America of either rape, drug facilitated sexual assault, sexual battery, child sexual abuse,[44] and/or sexual misconduct, with the earliest alleged incidents taking place in the mid-1960s, and the term "serial rapist"[45][46][47][48][49][50] has been used about him. Gloria Allred is representing 28 of the alleged victims. Allred has stated that more alleged victims would be coming forward. Cosby has denied any wrongdoing and has not been charged with any crime. [50][51][52]

Earlier sexual assault allegations against Cosby became more public after an October 2014 accusation by comedian Hannibal Buress went viral, and many additional claims were made after that date. The dates of the alleged incidents span from 1965 to 2008 across 10 U.S. states and one Canadian province,[48][53][54] and most of the acts alleged by his accusers fall outside the statutes of limitations for legal proceedings. As of October 6, 2015, six related lawsuits against Cosby are pending.[55][56][57]

In July 2015, the court records from Andrea Constand's 2005 civil lawsuit against Cosby were unsealed and released. Cosby's testimony shows a history of casual sex involving use of Quaaludes with a series of young women. [58] Criminal investigations, responses by the accusers, sexual drugging jokes, legislation, as well as program and policy changes have all been part of the controversy surrounding these allegations.

Cosby has declined to publicly discuss the accusations in past interviews.[59] He told Florida Today, "people shouldn't have to go through that and shouldn't answer to innuendos." [59] In May 2015 he said, "I have been in this business 52 years and I've never seen anything like this. Reality is a situation and I can't speak." [60]

In the wake of the allegations, numerous organizations have severed ties with the comedian, and previously awarded honors and titles have been revoked. Reruns of The Cosby Show have also been pulled from syndication. As of 2014, the talent agency CAA dropped Cosby as a client, leaving the comedian without a Hollywood agent. In an unprecedented condemnation of Cosby's actions and alleged crimes, multiple universities have rescinded his honorary degrees.

Can someone please explain how one actor can admit to sleeping with women while HIV positive and his shows are still on the air and another actor be "accused" of things that supposedly happened 20, 30 and 40 years ago and his career is ruined? Both appear to be admittedly guilty of some sex crimes but their careers and professional fates are as different as night and day.

Substance abuse, legal issues and health

On May 20, 1998, Charlie Sheen suffered a stroke after overdosing while using cocaine and was hospitalized. Sheen was found in his seaside home by a friend, after which paramedics had to give emergency life-saving treatment and rushed him to Las Robles hospital. He was described as being in a "serious condition" after his stomach was pumped.[93] Sheen subsequently checked into a rehab clinic days later but told doctors within hours that he did not intend to stay. Sheriffs later forced Sheen back into the clinic after he fled only hours after arriving.[94] On August 11, 1998, Sheen, already on probation in California for a previous drug offense, had his probation extended for an extra year and entered a rehab clinic.[95][96] In a 2004 interview, Sheen admitted that the overdose was caused by his injecting of cocaine.[97]

On December 25, 2009, Sheen was arrested for assaulting his wife, Brooke Mueller in Aspen, Colorado. He was released the same day from jail after posting an $8,500 bond.[98][99] Sheen was charged with felony menacing, as well as third-degree assault and criminal mischief.[100] On August 2, 2010, Sheen, represented by Yale Galanter,[101] pleaded guilty to misdemeanor assault as part of a plea bargain that included dismissal of the other charges against him. Sheen was sentenced to 30 days in a drug rehab center, 30 days of probation, and 36 hours of anger management.[102]

On October 26, 2010, the police removed Sheen from his suite at the Plaza Hotel after he reportedly caused $7,000 in damage.[103] According to the NYPD, Sheen admitted to drinking and using cocaine the night of the incident.[103] He was released after entering a hospital for observation.[104]

On November 17, 2015, Sheen publicly revealed that he was HIV positive, having been diagnosed roughly four years earlier.[105] In an interview, he referred to the phrase HIV as "three hard letters to absorb".[106] He manages his condition with a triple cocktail of antiretroviral drugs, and said that it was impossible that he could have infected any of his partners.[107] Sheen noted, that since 2011, he has paid extortionists approximately $10 million to keep his HIV positive status secret.[107] A source indicates that Sheen had over 200 sexual partners after he learned he had HIV. Sheen stated that he was upfront about his HIV positive condition with all of his past consorts.[107]
